

The Starting Questions

Question 1: What are your weak points and strong points in group work?

Communication, decision-making, scheduling, conflict resolution, etc...

Weak points: I am really busy so I find it hard to schedule times for meetings.

Strong points : I am good with deadlines, will usually finish before the deadline

Question 2: What do you hope to learn as a group during the project?

Communication skills, time-management, conflict-resolution skills.

I guess communication skills so it is easy to stay on top of the schedule.

Question 3: What do you think the assignment is asking you to do?

Implement some NLP practices mostly by hand, even though most are already available in libraries, to get a basic understanding of the underlying methods.

Question 4: What role do you hope to fulfill during the group project?

Leader, communicator, to keep the overview, note-taker, etc...

I like to keep the overview. E.g. make sure everything is in the right place and done as asked, so it is ready to submit.

Question 5: Which part of the group assignment do you want to take the lead on?

Writing, researching, formatting, etc...

I mostly like the coding implemenations most.

Question 6: What are your goals for the project?

A high grade, a passing grade, to learn something new?

Mostly to get acquainted with this material and build an NLP foundation.

Question 7: What type of worker are you?

What are your individual strengths and weaknesses? Writing, researching, formatting, etc....

I am good at implementations and also decent at writing I think.

Question 8: What personal development goal do you have for this group project?

Become a better listener, take the lead more often, etc.....

I aim to let go of control a little, not wanting to do everything myself.
